How Honey Bee became Queen Bee

The already popular yellow petunia with black star flowers, RED FOX Honey Bee, has been newly crowned as "RED FOX Queen Bee". While it has a new title, this is the same gorgeous petunia that has already left its special mark, quickly moving up the ranks of the hundreds upon hundreds of petunias tested for the RED FOX 2012 assortment.

"RED FOX Honey Bee is now „Queen Bee“

Queen Bee ruler of the petunia empire?

We'll tell you why Queen Bee could rule the petunia world....

- Rose to the top echelons from among hundreds of petunias trialed at Pack Trials 2010 and Flower Trials 2011
- Won the Gold Award and voted "the best new plant" at the Horticulture Trades Association (HTA) 2011 in UK
- Was among the 16 favourites at Hans Renner's trial and show garden in Austria

Plus, its colour, strong habit and very good branching are splendid.

RED FOX Queen Bee POS Tuning material

A Queen Bee pot and tag reinforces the presentation of RED FOX Queen Bee at the point of sale. The honeycomb motif and logo represent the beauty and harmony between a flower and the natural environment. It definitely will "bee" a highlight!
